Ticket Message:

Hi Patricia. The team is now working on the reserve study, comparing the assumptions provided by the reserve engineering company with their own capital plans. My intent is to have these assumptions updated in the cash flow analysis we will be presenting at the upcoming community coffee meeting. I can't speak yet to whether the reserve company will be able to update their reports so we can post it before the meeting, but that would be my desire as well.

Scott Auer,
General Manager
